Elaborate Church Wedding.

Screened in the ceiling with quantities of southern climax and wild blackberry from Alabama, with roses entwined in the greenery, and lavishly decorated with the choicest of flowers, the chancel of the Epworth Methodist church was a scene of beauty on Wednesday evening, when Miss Julia Wooten and Mr. Harry Scott were united in marriage by Dr. L. L. Cohen. White wicker baskets and vases mounted on pedestals held Russell roses, carnations and sprangeria fern, and a basket of pink artificial lilies, concealing tiny electric light bulbs, hung above the other blossoms, conspicuously beautiful. The church was filled with the many friends of the popular couple, and the front central section was reserved for the relatives of the bridal party, business associates and friends who had previously entertained for Miss Wooten and Mr. Scott.

Preceding the ceremony Mr. Sharon Owsley of Oklahoma City, sang "Because," and "Mine Alone," and the arrival of the bridal party was announced by Miss Marjorie Dwyer who played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin's wedding march. The ushers, Messrs. Albert Hawn, H. N. Smith, Jr., Tom Hoyd and Clyde Turner, led the bridal procession down the two central aisles of the church. The bridesmaids, Misses Vendia Eklund, of Clayton, N. M., Alberta Smith, Jonnie Record, of Park, Tex., and Marjorie Cochran, and the groomsmen, Messrs. Boggy Johnson, Carlwell Chastain, Reese Smith and Bobby Van Valkenburg, followed. The bridesmaids wore stunning gowns of pale pink tulle trimmed in silver lace, with quality becoming bonnets of silver lace and silver slippers. They carried baskets of Russell roses. Wee Anne Durant, the daintiest of flower girls, came next, driven in a harness of pink ribbons by Misses Ruby Wooten and Jo Beryl Betts. Miss Corinne Wooten acted as maid of honor and Mrs. M. Jones of Bristol, was the matron of honor. Miss Corinne's handsome dress was of white chiffon and embroidered net, heavily trimmed in silver lace, and she carried a silver garden hat hung from her arm with American Beauty ribbons and filled with Russell roses. Mrs. Jones' beautiful costume was of pale blue chiffon draped over orchid messaline and trimmed with bands of silver. She wore a hat to match and carried a formal bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. Preceded by Masters Richard Aust and Spencer Barefoot, each wearing a ring in the heart of a calla lily, the bride entered upon the arm of her brother, Mr. Dick Wooten, who gave her away. The groom was attended by Mr. Jess Fields of Norman, meeting his bride at the altar and as the words were spoken which gave her to him, they passed through the vicker gates which separated them from the rest of the bridal party, meeting Dr. Cohen. The ceremony which united them as husband and wife was a beautiful and impressive one.

Miss Julia Wooten wore a bridal robe of real lace over cloth of silver, the train also being of silver, bordered with ostrich fringe. Her lace veil was caught with real orange blossoms, the gift of California friends, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley with a center of two exquisite orchids. The bouquet was later thrown and caught by Miss Eklund.

The bride is the pretty and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Wooten. She attended Belmont college and is quite gifted musically. Winsome and possessing a charming personality she is the center of a large circle of friends wherever she goes. Mr. Scott is connected with the Wooten-Burton Sales company and is a young man of excellent character. The high esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends was attested by their numerous magnificent gifts. Among these were three chests of silver, an alabaster urn, Sheffield sets, pieces of hammered silver, cut glass and fine linens.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott left Thursday morning for Chicago and from there will go east, visiting the principal eastern cities. On their return they will visit Mr. Scott's parents in Blackwell.

Wedding at Stone Home.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Stone to Mr. Roy Looney of Wirt, occurred Thursday at twelve o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stone of Union Hill. The house was attractively decorated for the occasion, green and white predominating in the profusion of cut flowers and potted plants used.

At the appointed hour the wedding party advanced into the living room where a large wedding bell was hung over the place selected for the ceremony to be performed. In advance of the party were Miss Clara Anderson and Willie Mayberry, letting down the ribbons which formed the path for the bride and groom. Dainty Alma Mayberry, a little niece of the bride, carried the ring, with which the happy couple were wedded. Attending the bride were Misses Sina Seaton and Mary Anderson, wearing white frocks, and Mr. Lois Looney, a brother to the groom, was his best man. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Lyle Smith.

Miss Stone wore a gown of white flowered shadow silk and looked most attractive. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stone, and is well known in Chickasha, where she attended the O. C. W. for some time.

An elaborate dinner was served immediately after the ceremony. The guests, besides the bride's family, were Miss Sina Seaton, Malverne, Ia., Mrs. H. E. Mayberry and children, Malverne, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Anderson and family of Goble, Mr. Lois Looney, Mr. and Mrs. John Looney of Lucile, Mr. and Mrs. Will Anderson and daughter Clara of Union Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clendenning and Misses Flora Baker and Pat Neely of Chickasha.

Mr. and Mrs. Looney left on the Firefly that evening for Sulphur and after a few days visit there will return to Chickasha. They will then go to Wirt where Mr. Looney is connected with a mercantile business, and they will be at home to their friends in that city.

Luncheon for Mrs. Siddons.

Mrs. Roy Smith was the gracious hostess at a beautiful luncheon and "send the day" party on Thursday of this week, given in honor of Mrs. B. P. Siddons to a few of her intimate friends. Flowers filled the rooms of Mrs. Smith's beautiful home on Minnesota Ave., roses and sweet peas being used in abundance and masses of "black-eyed Susans" banking the fire place. A guessing contest amused the guests on their arrival, the answer to each question being the name of something edible. In this Mrs. Ludlow won a pretty plate as a prize. Mrs. Siddons was presented with a complete and very useful Pullman apron.

At one o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room, and seated at a table of exquisite appointments. More "black-eyed Susans" were arranged for the center piece and the yellow color scheme was observed throughout the luncheon. Crispy condiment crackers were the place cards, each card concealing a conundrum and answer as the name suggests. Yellow baskets held salted almonds and the yellow ice cream was molded into miniature trucks, suggestive of the honoree's going away. The delicious menu was served in four courses. Victrola selections being enjoyed at the same time.

In the afternoon bridge was played at two tables and Mrs. Wade won a fancy basket for making high score. For being successful in an all around cut, Mrs. Hehn was presented a pretty dolly.

Enjoying this farewell party were Mesdames Siddons, Wooten, Sheegog, Wade, Hehn, Ludlow and Hammerly and Miss Olive Smith.

Sweet Pea Party at Club.

A beautiful sweet pea party at which Mrs. T. J. King was the hostess was given at the country club yesterday afternoon. Baskets of the delicate flowers and festoons of smilax decorated mantle, piano, arches and above balustrades. The tables with which the guests found their places at fifteen tables of forty-two were decorated in sweet peas. For making the most progressions during the afternoon, Mrs. B. P. Smith won a sweet pea vase of cream pottery. The second prize, an etched glass candlestick, was awarded Mrs. Thewett, and Mrs. Leeds won a bouquet of sweet peas in an all around cut. The booby, a partner, was presented to Mrs. P. L. Slaughter.

The sweet pea colors, pink, white and green, were carried out in the ice cream and candies and a few blossoms made each plate attractive. Near one hundred invitations were issued for this enjoyable party. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. L. E. Pettigrew of Ada, Mrs. W. E. Taylor of Oklahoma City, Mrs. Prothro of Wichita Falls, Mrs. East of McLoud, Mrs. Caswell of Austin, Texas, Mrs. DuRand of Frederick, and Miss Carrie Tuttle of Oklahoma City.

Evening Card Party.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Siddons, who are soon to leave Chickasha for Denver, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Frey entertained a few friends informally at cards Thursday evening. Top scores were made by Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cavanaugh, their favors being a pair of silk hose and a set of fancy bridge scores. Mrs. Siddons was presented with a handsome box of stationery and Mr. Siddons received a pair of silk hose. Numerous graphophone selections and a delectable luncheon were features of the evening's pleasure. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Siddons, Cavanaugh, Sheegog and Charles Williams and Mrs. Caswell.

Imperial Club Entertained.

Mrs. Charles Trammel entertained the members of the Imperial club last Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Will Melton of Oklahoma City. Cards were played at two tables and the hostess made high score. Dainty refreshments followed the last hand.

The "Gold-Standard"— in Tires

GOODRICH Tire Values are not at all "Accidental." They spring from Conditions which are logical as the Laws of the Universe.

The best-intentioned Tire Manufacturer cannot AVOID being heavily handicapped when competing against them.

Because, Goodrich "Conditions" summarize into this:

1st—The longest Experience in Mfg. the Product.

2nd—The greatest Leverage on purchasing of Raw Materials at lowest prices, through ability to take largest quantities.

3rd—The lowest Cost of Manufacturing, through largest VOLUME of Output.

4th—The clearly-demonstrated INTENTION to give Consumers and Dealers the full benefit of the large ECONOMIES resulting from possession of the three Cardinal Advantages above defined.

THE Product of such a Rubber-Concern,—when marketed under such conditions,—giving the benefit of such huge Economies to Consumers may well, and logically, be considered—the "GOLD-STANDARD" in Tire Values.

Therefore:—When you pay MORE than the Goodrich Fair-List prices, here printed, for ANY Fabric Tire, you are merely "contributing" the difference.

Because,—You CANNOT get "better" Fabric Tires,—at ANY price!

Test them thoroughly,—and see!

Miss White Graduates.

Programs of the tenth annual commencement exercises of the Wichita College of Music have been received in Chickasha and are of interest to the many friends of Miss Anna White, who is a graduate. The graduating recitals commenced June 1, closing with the commencement, Tuesday evening, June 13. Miss White was one of three diploma graduates who gave a recital on June 6, her selections being, "Polonaise C minor," by Chopin, "Concert Study in F sharp," by Schumann, and "Nocturne No. 2," by Schumann. She was also on the commencement program for Robert Schumann's "Concerto in A minor."

Miss White will visit relatives in Kansas and Missouri until August, when she will return to Chickasha. Next year she will be an instructor in the piano department of the O. C. W.
